Is Your Computer on Life Support?

Is your once-speedy PC stalling out of the gate?

- Did you know that computers need to be optimized and cleaned out every so often?

It's true. Over time, your computer will build up loads of temporary files it forgets to delete, which will help slow things down—especially if you spend any time on the internet. Any time at all. Not to mention the spyware and marketing junk that accumulates from visiting online stores and other websites. Even if you don't use the internet, your registry (the PC's brain) will gradually pile up lots of little 'footprints' or 'shadows' of programs that have come and gone—all contributing to the sluggish speed that gets so frustrating.

Have our technicians 'clean out' your system from time to time, and watch your computer FLY!
